✓ MUSIC – AAA Scoreboard Not Just Rock is looking for Turin musicians

MUSIC Celeste ✓ News ⌚ about 17 hours ago

Someone of the very first participants of Rock report card still plays, others have hung the instrument on a nail and still others tell their children the thrill of going up on that stage. It's been 32 years since the first edition, but Scoreboard Not Just Rock she continues undaunted to write the history of Turin music, hosting the youthful ferment of bands and soloists who have music in their heads, perhaps just as it had happened to their fathers a few decades ago.

Now as then, the event has not changed, more than anything else it has grown in importance, becoming a beautiful stage for those who have something to say in music. Still at its origins, Pagella Non solo Rock is a music competition aimed at young musicians, groups and soloists who propose their own songs to which the section in competition is dedicated, or even cover-tributes and classical for the one out of competition, of any musical genre , without limitations.

To participate you must be resident or domiciled in Turin and the Metropolitan City, not be 23 years of age at the time of enrollment, with at least one or a member attending upper secondary schools (section in competition), o under 23, workers or university students (out of competition).

The 32nd edition has opened in these days the registrations, totally free, which will close on Tuesday 26 April. To participate, simply accept the regulations and fill in the form provided on the page <https://form.jotformeu.com/90314629663359>

THE REVIEW

Compatibly with the pandemic emergency, the live sets will take place in an outdoor venue equipped to host live artistic events, hopefully in the presence of the public. All information on the event will be published on the website <http://www.comune.torino.it/pagerock/>

A specialized jury – made up of musicians, critics and industry experts will select, through live events, the best 5 groups or soloists who will access the final. But also the public will be asked to express their preference for live selections. For each evening, it will be possible to vote on the web for your favorite group or soloist using the comment / vote mechanism which – at the end of the selections and counting – will allow a sixth group or soloist in competition with the highest number of votes received, to participate. to the final under the same conditions as the 5 other finalists expressed by the jury.

During the entire edition, some free services will be available to participants: web page, video footage, photos, reviews, radio interviews, complete audio recordings of the live selections, content that will be published on the website and on the Pagella Non Solo social channels. Rock.

The Turin event has also signed a collaboration with the startup dedicated to the world of music MUSICTOGO which offers 480 euros of vouchers to spend in a rehearsal room of your choice.
